

STUDENTS

Definition of Full-time and Part-time Students

The School Board has established criteria for the determination of full or part-time students. Those students meeting the following criteria are defined as full-time and or part-time students in the D.C. Everest Area School District:

- I. A full-time student in the D.C. Everest Area Elementary, Middle School, Junior High School, and Senior High School:
 - A. Is one who is enrolled in a regular K-12 program at one of the regular attendance centers, or
 - B. Is one who is enrolled in a special education program which may or may not take place at one of these attendance centers, or
- II. A part-time student in the D.C. Everest Area Schools is one who may be only studying a specific course or portion of a program of study, and is not considered to be working toward completing any grade level or school requirement.
