Dear

This letter is to inform you that _____ has continued to be truant from classes. The most recent offense was _____. Based on our records, this student is in noncompliance with the orders of the Marathon County Juvenile Court.

The parent is being sent a copy of this letter to alert them to the fact that a truancy problem continues to exist with _____.

They have five school days to confer in person with _____ concerning this latest truancy. _____ is also to attend the conference. If the conference is not arranged by _____, we will be referring this matter to you and the District Attorney for action under s. 118.15(5).

We appreciate your cooperation and assistance in correcting these situations.

Sincerely,

Principal
