

STUDENTSPUPIL NONDISCRIMINATIONStudent Conduct

All student behavior should be based on respect and consideration for the rights of others. Students have a responsibility to know and follow the rules and regulations of the school.

The Assistant Superintendent, Curriculum, Instruction & Technology is responsible for developing and administering reasonable rules and regulations for students. The Assistant Superintendent will, as needed, form a student code committee to revise the Student Rights and Responsibilities Code booklet. Such rules and regulations shall not conflict with Board policies, statutory law or case law.

All employees of the district share the responsibility for supervising student behavior.

The right of a student to participate fully in classroom instruction and extracurricular activities shall not be abridged or impaired because of sex, race, religion, ancestry, creed, sexual orientation, national origin, pregnancy, marital or parental status, physical, learning, mental or emotional disability or handicap.
