

STUDENTSInjury, Illness and Student Death Occurring at School

Emergency situations, injury, illness or student death that occurs in the school should be treated with utmost urgency by the personnel involved. The person in charge should do all that is possible to render assistance until the arrival of a person who has been trained to render first aid or appropriate assistance.