

STUDENTS

Discipline - Students in the Special Education Program

The Board of Education intends that all students in the special education program should be afforded the due process rights that are a part of the various special education laws in disciplinary procedure. When it is necessary to consider expulsion, the Board of Education will ensure that the due process rights of each student in the special education program is afforded the student.

LEGAL REFERENCES:

120.12

Wisconsin State Statutes