Assurances:

- o The concept of the Charter School to be planned is consistent with the district’s mission.
  - o The Charter School to be planned would be significantly different than current programming to provide distinct alternative learning opportunities for students.
  - o This application defines implications for district staff time commitment, if any, to assist with planning. List district staff time implications anticipated. Use separate page if necessary.
- o This application defines any financial obligations for the district (i.e., accounting, record keeping, etc.) necessary for the planning process and provides for reimbursement, if applicable. List district financial obligations. Use separate page if necessary.

Once a charter is granted, I understand that a charter may be revoked by the school board if any of the conditions found in 118.40 (5) (a) – (d) occur.
